FOREWORD

BY MILOS TEODOSIC

'Through the extensive experience of our coaches and my own experience, we came up with the program in line with which TEO4 will work and that will be - I'm sure - the best possible assistance to young players and at the same time their school of life.

As I have always been trying to ease the way to the basket for my teammates providing the timely assists, now it's my goal to be a good assistant to each participant of our camp...

... It's only up to you to pass the ball through a hoop...'

Milos Teodosic
